PMA-201G1 Cartridge Actuated Devices/
Propellant Actuated Devices
(CAD/PAD) International Logistics Meeting (ILM)

Service Life Extensions (SLEs)
and
Stock Issues / Replacements In Kind (SI/RIK)

26-27 June 2018
Delivery Delays

- There are two steps to mitigate delivery delays (must be done in the below order):
  - Step 1: SLE requests

- Step 1 - Requesting an SLE
  - Using the new SLE Request Form established by PMA-201 in Sep 2017, email request to fms_cadpad_sle_r.fct@navy.mil
    - If you have not received this form, please contact the team at fms_cadpad_sle_r.fct@navy.mil
  - Request SLE, at minimum, 60 days prior to expiration of item
  - SLEs are recommendations only, not approvals
Service Life Extension Request Form (New)

Note: An SLE request for CAD/PADs which were procured by means other than through an FMS case cannot be processed.

There are two steps to mitigate delivery delays (must be done in the below order) (cont.):

- Step 2: SI/RIK

Step 2 - Requesting a SI/RIK

- FMS customer submit formal request to Navy International Programs Office (NIPO)
  - NIPO then submits to PMA-201
    - PMA-201 submits the REVAMMO request to AIR 1.4
    - Air 1.4 submits the request to NAVSUP Global Logistics Support (GLS)
    - NAVSUP GLS has 10 working days to review
    - NAVSUP GLS provides recommendation on SI/RIK to Chief of Naval Operations (OPNAV)
    - OPNAV makes final decision on SI/RIK

- Used as a last resort option, availability not guaranteed
- Process may take up to 45+ working days to deliver

Planning ahead is important!

- PMA-201G1 uses eChange tool, implemented in Oct 2017, to track open SI/RIK requests through approval process
