About the College of Southern Maryland

The College of Southern Maryland (CSM) was founded in 1958, and has four different locations in Calvert, Charles, and St. Mary’s counties. CSM is the sixth largest community college in Maryland.

CSM has been a regular partner with Naval Surface Warfare Center Indian Head Explosive Ordnance Disposal Technology Division for many years, and the La Plata campus has served as the venue for both the CAD/PAD Technical Exchange Workshop and the CAD/PAD International Logistics Meeting in the past.

More information about the CSM La Plata campus is available on their webpage at: https://www.csmd.edu/about/locations/la-plata-campus/.
Directions to the College of Southern Maryland

The address for the La Plata campus of the College of Southern Maryland is:

8730 Mitchell Road
La Plata, MD 20646

The 2018 CAD/PAD Technical Exchange Workshop will be held in the Center for Business and Industry (BI Building on the map). The two main entrances (South and North Campus Drives) to the La Plata CSM campus are off Mitchell Drive, and are clearly marked with signs. The easiest access to the BI building is from the North Campus Drive.
2018 CAD/PAD TEW Details
