

How Well Do You Know Your Navy Ships?

What kind of Sailor would you make?

Test your Navy knowledge and see how many ships you can name!

Across

1. A ship designed to travel close to the coast line, it got its name from "The Declaration of ...?"
8. This man is called "the father of the American Navy." If you know his name, then you know the name of this San Diego-based Navy ship ...
9. This submarine is named for our biggest, and usually chilliest, state ...?
10. This was the name of John Paul Jones' ship when he said "Sir, I have not yet begun to fight!" ...
13. This famous British prime minister is one of only four Englishmen to have a US Navy warship named after him ...
14. If you live in New Mexico, then you know the name of this submarine since it's named after your capital ...
15. Do you remember your American Revolutionary history? This San Diego cruiser was named after a famous battle in Boston ...
16. Not a President, but this famous World War II Navy admiral had his name on the first of the Navy's biggest aircraft carriers ...

Down

2. This cruiser lives in Virginia and was named after the beach where the Allies invaded Europe on D-Day ...
3. This carrier was named after a general who planned D-Day and became the 34th President ...
4. Do you know the 16th American President? If so you know the name of this aircraft carrier ...
5. This submarine is named after the "Lone Star" state ...
6. The Navy's newest aircraft carrier was named after the 41st President ...?
7. Named after a famous battle in Hawaii, this ship takes Marines and their air-cushioned landing craft whenever they are needed
11. This ship transports Marines all over the world and got its name from the famous Marine flag-raising in World War II ...?
12. Named after "Big D" in Texas, this submarine is also a movie star when it appeared in the movie, "The Hunt for Red October" ...