

Biography

United States Navy

Captain Cord H. Luby Commanding Officer Naval Surface Warfare Center, Port Hueneme Division

Captain Cord H. Luby is a 1991 graduate of the U.S. Naval Reserve Officer Training program at the University of Utah. His operational tours include service as Electrical Officer and Navigator on USS JUNEAU (LPD 10), Damage Control Assistant and Main Propulsion Assistant on USS SHILOH (CG 67), Operations Officer on USS MCCLUSKY (FFG 41), Operations Officer on USS MOBILE BAY (CG 53), Executive Officer on USS LEYTE GULF (CG 55) and Commanding Officer of USS FORD (FFG 54).

Luby earned a Master's degree in Management from the Naval Post Graduate School. He attended the Marine Corps Command and Staff College where he completed his Joint Professional Military Education Phase I and earned a Master's degree in Military Science.

Assignments ashore include Requirements Officer for the Littoral Combat Ship program on the Chief of Naval Operations staff within the Surface Warfare Directorate in Washington D.C., Assistant Program Manager for Distance Support and Fleet Liaison (PMW 240) Program Executive Office Enterprise Information Systems (PEO EIS), Director DDG 1000 Combat Systems Fleet Introduction and Readiness (IWS 9.0) within Program Executive Office Integrated Warfare Systems (PEO IWS), and Commanding Officer of Naval Surface Warfare Center, Port Hueneme Division.

Luby's awards include the Meritorious Service Medal (3); Navy Commendation Medal (5); Navy Achievement Medal and various unit and service awards.