Dependent’s Obtaining Base Access

Dependents can obtain a temporary one year Naval Base Kitsap (NBK) access card. This will be helpful for dependent to enter onto base for future daycare access, gym access, MWR access, and transportation needs.

Process:

Sponsor, with their badge, and their dependent, with picture identification, meet at NBK Bremerton Pass & ID Building 981 or Keyport Pass & ID and fill out a sponsorship form. No appointment is necessary. Dependent will receive NBK dependent access card. Also bring vehicle information (registration and insurance proof) if vehicle does not have decals already.

Questions/Answers

Q: Who must the sponsor be?
A: Sponsor must be civil service government employee.

Q: Who must the dependent be?
A: Dependents must be living at home and children must NOT be over the age of 18.

Q: What badge/color must the sponsor have?
A: Sponsor must present any color (green, yellow, red) NAVSEA badge.

Q: What form of identification must the dependent present?
A: Dependent must present picture identification (driver’s license or school ID).

Q: Where does the dependent access card provide access to?
A: Naval Base Kitsap Bremerton and Bangor.

Q: Is the sponsor form available online to be prefilled prior to arrival to pass & ID?
A: No, the form takes approximately one minute to complete.

Q: Do the sponsor and dependent have to meet at Pass & ID?
A: No, the sponsor can pick up form, get signatures, and then the dependent can finish form (at home) and bring to Pass & ID.

Q: Can a dependent base access card be obtained through Bangor Pass & ID?
A: No.
Q: After receiving their base access card, will the dependent need ID to get on base?
A: Yes. They will need to present the base access card with photo ID.
