

United States Navy Biography

CAPTAIN DAVID N. BACK, USN Commanding Officer Naval Surface Warfare Center, Panama City Division

Captain David N. Back assumed command of Naval Surface Warfare Center, Panama City Division on May 8, 2020 and today leads more than 1,500 civilians, 425 contractors, and 35 military, and an overall business base of more than $500 million. The Division's mission areas encompass all navy missions that occur in the littorals, including mine warfare, diving and life support, naval special warfare, and expeditionary maneuver systems.

Captain David Back is from Livermore, California. He joined the Navy through the NROTC Program at Stanford University, receiving his commission in 1995.

He served as Electrical and Auxiliaries Officer onboard USS GEORGE PHILIP (FFG 12) for his first Division Officer tour, seeing the ship through the CARAT 96 deployment and a JIATF-West Counter-Narcotics Deployment in 1998. From there he transferred to USS CONSTELLATION (CV 64), completing WESTPAC 99 / OPERATION SOUTHERN WATCH as the Communications Maintenance (CS-8) Division Officer and the CMS Custodian. As a Department Head, he was the Pre-commissioning Combat Systems Officer on USS PINCKNEY (DDG 91) from March 2002 to January 2005 and the Operations Officer on the Yokosuka-based USS COWPENS (CG 63) from February 2005 to July 2006, through several multi-national exercises including TALISMAN SABER 05. In March 2011, he reported aboard USS INDEPENDENCE (LCS 2) "Gold Crew" as Executive Officer, fleeting up to Commanding Officer in September of 2012, and seeing her through numerous Post-Delivery Test and Trials events and her sail-around from Mayport to San Diego.

Ashore, Captain Back attended the Naval Postgraduate School during from January 2000 to March 2002. He also served as Air Defense, Operations, and Naval Tactical Planning Instructor at the Surface Warfare Officers School from July 2006 through October 2009, during which time he spent one year as a Brigade Electronic Warfare Officer with the 213th Area Support Group (Army National Guard) in Balad, Iraq as an Individual Augmentee. Between April 2014 and June 2017, he served on the OPNAV staff as the Surface Warfare Division Littoral Combat Ships Branch Head (N96E2).

In April 2017, Captain Back screened as a Surface Warfare Officer Acquisition Corps Recruit and transitioned in June 2017 to his first Acquisition tour was in Program Executive Office for Integrated Warfare Systems as the Principle Assistant Program Manager for Aegis Fleet Support (PEO IWS 1FR). He screened for Acquisition Major Program Manager in November 2017, and in June 2018 started standing up a new Program Office (in Program Executive Office, Ships) for surface ship Bridge Commonality and Integration, following recommendations in the US Fleet Forces Comprehensive Review of the USS FITZGERALD, MCCAIN, ANTIETAM, and CHANCELLORSVILLE incidents.

Captain Back holds a Bachelor of the Arts Degree in English from Stanford University and a Master of Science Degree in Modeling, Virtual Environments and Simulations (MOVES) from the Naval Postgraduate School.

He is married to Angela Back (né Miller) and has two children, Bella (20, an NROTC Midshipman at Yale University) and Sami (18, finishing her senior year of High School).

Captain Back's personal awards include the Meritorious Service Medal (4 awards) and the Navy-Marine Corps Commendation Medal (4 awards).

-END-