With this year's theme "Prepare for Battle: Undersea Security" or "US19," the focus is on technologies and future concepts that explore and interact with the maritime domain, connecting assets from the seafloor to space and ensuring their security, in order to bring data home.

ANTX is a catalyst for innovation, experimentation, and high velocity learning. Industry partners are invited to exercise their systems and products relevant to Navy applications. Fleet decision-makers and stakeholders are invited to see these systems in action, on the water, with real-time opportunity to ask questions and help guide what is needed to advance the technology to the next step in the development or acquisition process.

The benefit of real-time collaboration is the increased speed in which innovative technologies get to the Fleet. Through rapid prototyping, the Navy is retaining its high level of technical rigor while also being cost-effective.
