6.職務内容 Duties

Serves as a key advisor to the Administrative Officer, acting as an official interpreter and translator for culturally significant matters including fostering positive cross-cultural relations and mutual understanding between U.S. Forces and Japanese employees. Develops plans and procedures to ensure due consideration of public and cultural relations implications. Promotes cultural partnerships by organizing community conferences, tours, and meetings. Mediates social issues stemming from language or custom differences by advising both parties on national practices. Provides regular cultural updates via briefs to the Commanding Officer, Deputy Commander, Executive Director, and Administrative Officer.

Acts as the primary liaison with senior Master Labor Contract leadership and other stakeholder groups. Ensures these leaders are fully educated on ongoing, new, and prospective policies and initiatives through effective communication, enabling them to further educate the workforce. Gathers stakeholder feedback and coordinates the resolution of inquiries with appropriate officials.

Evaluates existing community and cultural programs by gathering historical data and consulting with staff on operational problems. Identifies areas for improvement, develops enhanced methodologies for cultural programs, and assists in implementing new procedures to optimize cross-cultural understanding.
